ABOUT MPC23

MPC23 is the must-attend event for business development, market intelligence and networking! Sponsored by Mobile Marketing & Technology Magazine, MPC attracts an executive-level audience from across the mobile and digital commerce ecosystem.

Our track record is long and laudable; 2023 marks the 13th year. Unlike many other events, MPC: The Digital Commerce Event attracts an elite group of professionals for a multiday conversation about the opportunities and challenges of mobile commerce. It's a singular experience from which attendees emerge with the knowledge, resources and relationships to thrive in an evolving market.
